

Město Česká Kamenice. město Ústí nad Labem a Svaz hudebníků ČR

Dear music friends,

let us invite you to the 12th Česká Kamenice International Music Festival 2011, held from June 17. 6. – 19. 6. 2011 in Česká Kamenice, Czech republic.

The Festival is a meeting place for a young generation from all the Europe.

The Festival is divided into four parts:

1. Big bands contest
2. Brass bands contest (30 to 70 members) – both orchestras contests are international
3. Autors song contest of czech composers and autors with the examples of the international composer and interpretation activity
4. Presentation of majorettes groups with prize awarding

Besides all the contest presentations of orchestras there will be separate presentations not included in the contests, majorettes performances, parades, international discotheques and other activities.

Organizers:

The town of Česká Kamenice and Union of Musicians of the Czech Republic in collaboration with the Czech Television, Czech Radio and other co-organizers and patrons, including the music unions from abroad. The festival is organized mainly for the young people up to the age of 26. The festival committee certainly welcomes good quality orchestras above this age limit. Looking forward to our collaboration.

Yours sincerely,

Miloslav Zelenka
Festival President
